Dear Sir:

On March 28, 2011, I was sentenced to 4 months of Federal Prison with the offense of possession of Cocaine with intent to distribute. I would like to be considered for a reduction of sentence.

I am a first time offender and did not carry a weapon and I'm not a danger to Society. I'm currently at the Phoenix Federal Prison work Camp. I arrived on April 29, 2011.

My work duties are administration orderly. Also I am taking GED classes and waiting to take GCS classes.

My sincerest apology. I am very sorry for all the bad decisions I realized this hurt my family - my daughters, my parents and friends and most of all Society in general. I created victims and now I can understand how wrong I was I am not a bad person. I am however a mother. a daughter
